Have you ever etched a pattern on the ice using JUST your amazing skating skills? That's right, now's your chance to actually trace a figure: our June 19 pattern specially created for us by @artbaeonline!

Stay tuned to our @diversify_ice Instagram page for upcoming video of Diversify Ice Ambassador Emmanuel Savary demonstrating the pattern. In the meantime, see if you can follow along with these steps (ask your coaches for help if you'd like! Get them in on the action, too!):

RECORDING:

- Place your phone in a safe spot near the rink's barrier at ice level.
- Use a hockey short axis line to begin tracing.

SKATING:

1. Begin the "J" with a Schafer push on the right foot to create the LEFT BACK OUTSIDE edge. Place the right toe behind to stop and transition with a low hop.
2. Push onto a RIGHT FORWARD INSIDE deep lobe with a quick bracket, if needed, to exit the top of the "U".
3. Set the LEFT FORWARD INSIDE edge for the "N" and complete with a RIGHT FORWARD stroke transition to the start point for the "E".
4. Start the RIGHT FORWARD OUTSIDE LOOP by facing parallel to the hockey line. Stroke to the top of the "1" after completing the "E".
5. This RIGHT FORWARD stroke for the "1" could be a spiral or variation of position with a stop. Be creative!
6. Begin the LEFT FORWARD OUTSIDE "9" perpendicular to the hockey line and exit with an optional lunge, waltz jump, or axel from the loop!

Repeat 3-5 times or until the "June 19" figure has a visible imprint!

Now it's photo-ready! Please post by June 19 and tag @diversify_ice and #diversifyice for a chance to be featured on our page!

Here's a larger version of the pattern we want you to skate!

We can't wait to see your awesome videos!
